APPENDIX A: Role of Community Representatives

Members of the community have important knowledge that the NPC considers critical to the development of the Nunavut Land Use Plan, and it is essential that Commissioners hear your views on the 2021 DNLUP. The Public Hearing is an opportunity for Commissioners to hear directly from community members and other participants on the content of the 2021 DNLUP. During the regional Public Hearing, you will present your community's views on the draft plan and be able to ask questions to other participants in the planning process. The NPC will consider this information when revising the 2021 DNLUP and making its recommendations to the signatories of the NLUP. The Public Hearing will be structured as follows:
