The Commission thanks all the participants who were able to submit final written comments, including supplementary reports, shape files, maps, and notes to the Commission for consideration.

Please note that all the final written submissions received to date in respect of the 2021 DNLUP are now available on the NPC public registry online at: <http://lupit.nunavut.ca/portal/registry.php>. The interactive maps and GIS files of the maps are available on the NPC's website at www.nunavut.ca.

1. OPPORTUNITY TO REVIEW AND RESPOND TO POST-HEARING FINAL WRITTEN SUBMISSIONS

Participants can now review the final written submissions and provide responses or comments in respect of the submissions received. The NPC requests that participants submit their comments on the Final Written Submissions by February 24, 2023.

The NPC requests that all participants providing comments include a clear reference to the page number(s) of the relevant Final Written submission where the comments arise from. Participants are encouraged to review Appendix A which provides a suggested template for the submission of written responses.

2. NEXT STEPS

After receiving any responses to final written submissions by February 24, 2023 the record will close on the 2021 DNLUP. The Commission will then consider all feedback received on the 2021 DNLUP, including all written submission and oral comments provided during public hearings. A 2023 Recommended Nunavut Land Use Plan and fully revised Options and Recommendations document will be prepared and submitted to the Government of Canada, the Government of Nunavut, and Nunavut Tunngavik Inc. for consideration, and will also be made public.

If you have any questions regarding the final written submissions received to date on the 2021 DNLUP, please contact Solomon Amuno at: samuno@nunavut.ca.

Sincerely,

Solomon Amuno, PhD
Senior Planner
Nunavut Planning Commission
